Pre-Order Barenaked Ladies' brand new album NOW along with exclusive merchandise bundles!

With over 14 million albums sold, multiple JUNO Awards and Grammy nominations, world renowned rockers Barenaked Ladies are excited to announce the release of their fifteenth studio album Fake Nudes, on November 17, 2017. The new album features fourteen freshly minted tracks including the catchy "Lookin' Up" written by BNL frontman Ed Robertson, Kevin Griffin (Better Than Ezra) and Sam Hollander (who has co-written with Weezer, Fitz & The Tantrums and Train), and "Bringing it Home," written by Ed Robertson and Kevin Griffin. Each pre-order includes instant downloads of both tracks, with four additional tracks to be made available in the weeks leading up to the release.

"I'm incredibly proud of this collection of songs. This is a record where all band members shine. It's incredible to feel so excited about something 29 years into our career. I'm excited to get out and play these songs live." -Ed Robertson
